Libertarian Party of Connecticut unveils new, improved web site at LPCT.ORG

Liberty has a new home! Libertarian Party of Connecticut is launching our new web site today after months of anticipation. We hope you like (or +1) the site's new look which has completely reworked functionality as well as aesthetics.

Some of our formidable improvements include:

- An archive library of past articles
- Posts & articles throughout the site now allow you to share your opinions
- Twitter integration with our site and listserv
- Authors, and subscribers will enjoy our intuitive new control panel
- An interactive events calendar
- Fluid communication for the preeminent Libertarian community in Connecticut
- Constantly evolving and advancing interface and features
- New and interesting content!

We are striving to provide new content and interesting information several times a week. There is always something to check out on the LPCT.ORG site. Please be sure to register so you can participate in article and post discussions.

2012 is going to be a landmark year for the Libertarian Party in Connecticut.

We are incredibly busy over the next few months organizing a Ballot Access Signature Drive and The Annual Libertarian Party of Connecticut Convention, which is slated for April. Stay tuned and follow us on Twitter @LPConnecticut for frequent updates!

Libertarian. How much freedom can you tolerate?

The Libertarian Party is the third largest and fastest growing political party in the United States.
LPCT is the official Connecticut chapter of the Libertarian Party.
